The PUBLISHER to the READER.

TIS well known that great variety of small, and trifling Collections of Dances, many of them Old ones with new Names, have been impos'd upon the Public for a considerable time; and each having in a manner, the same things over and over with little or no alteration; insomuch, that the Buyer, for to purchase only a few particular Things, is put to the Trouble, and unnecessary charge of having many of a sort; and those who would make a Compleat Collection, are furnished, even to a Burthen, with Duplicates: Therefore, that Persons may not be liable to these, and the like inconveniencies hereafter: The Publisher has with great care Collected this, the second Volume of the Dancing Master, containing all the most valuable that has been Published these seven Years; so that both the Volumes include all the Dances in esteem that are extant, with at least 50 New ones, not Printed before.

N. B. Some of the Dances bearing two Names, and being two several ways Performed, both are here put down under the Tunes, so that the performer may take which he pleases; which was done by the advice of several Eminent Masters, who were at the Trouble of Correcting this whole Work.

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

TH E Compleat Music-Master, being Plain, Easie, and Familiar Rules for Singing, and Playing on the most useful Instruments now in Vogue. Viz. Violin, Flute, Haut-Boy and Bass-Viol: Containing likewise a Hundred choice Tunes and fitted to each Instrument, with Songs for two Voices; and a Prelude of the late Mr. Morgan's never before Printed. To which is added, a Scale of the seven Keys of Musick, shewing how to Transpose any Tune from one Key to another, in which Book, the Learner is sure to meet with the best Instructions for Each Instrument. The Quakers Dance, Danc'd } in the Play-House.

Longways for as many as will.

First all joyn Hand in Hand, and Face to the Presence, then all lead to the Presence and back again.

{ Friends each with Sister, thus in order stand,
For sure the Godly may joyn hand in hand,
In Vertue's Paths tread firm, as Oaks do grow,
But from all sin, like Crabs let's backward go.

Here the first two couple give Right-hands, and take Left a whole round; next Men and We. Facing each other, the two first couple Nod Heads at each other,
and afterwards take Hands, then all four go once round,
and the first couple cast off below the second couple.

{ Joyn not with those, who ha'n't the Light within,
Who are in darkness, and in deadly Sin;
But with thy Holy Brethren joyn thy Might,
Who have, like us, the Sanctify'd Light?

Then each Friend standing opposite to his Sister, after he has repeated these two Verses, he Kisses her;

{ And tho' we'll not Clap hands, nor Congies make,
Yet we'll Nod Heads, and Hands we'll Friendly shake;
{ Which done, thus joyn'd in Love once round well go,
Next, ye walk up, and we'll cast off below.

Then turning to the second Woman, having repeated these Verses Kisses her also.

{ But as this Mirth does much my Spirit move,
So I to thee thus testify my Love;
And least, O Sister, thou should'st take this ill,
The Spirit bears to thee, the same good will.

This is General Month's March with the variations. Jones in his Welsh Bards supposed it to refer to a descent of the ~~Welsh~~ Banger Iscoed in Pembrokeshire when they marched to Chester to 'assess' Brochmael Ysgythrog Prince of Wales, who was then against the invasion of the King of Northumberland, about the year 600! He absolutely meets the 'wander' as I call it a piece of date. See Jones's Welsh Bards, vol. 1, p. 5162. The 'wander' one taken from Vol. 2, p. 61 of the same work, 3^d edition, 1718.
